Sub: Revised guidelines for implementation of Janani Suraksha Yojana (JSY)

In supersession of all the previous guidelines and in persuasion of GOI guidelines in respect of implementation of JSY scheme and financial modalities, it has been decided that from 1st October 2012 the JSY scheme will be implemented as per the following norms:

1. Eligibility Criteria for Pregnant Woman

- All SC & ST mothers of 19 years and above & up to two live births.
- All BPL families belonging to other categories of age 19 years and above & up to two live births

2. Financial Assistance:

- No payment will be made after completion of third ANC
- Rs.500/- (five hundred) will be paid to eligible belonging to only BPL family delivered at home within 7 (seven) days after delivery by ANM/ASHA for rural area or by ULB for urban area provided she received 3 ANCs. This means the eligible SC/ST mothers of APL category will not get any cash incentive for home delivery.
- All the eligible mothers delivered at public / accredited private health facility will have to be paid Rs. 700/- from GOI fund + additional Rs. 300/- from State fund thus a total of Rs.1000/ will have to be paid by the institution for rural eligible or Rs,900 (Rs.600/- from GOI fund + additional Rs.300/- from State fund) for Urban eligible by the institution where the delivery has actually taken place. It is mandatory to pay the incentive during of before discharge.
